

🕊 MONTH OF ADAR

Some say it is a big Segula to fast on Erev Rosh Chodesh Adar and to say the whole Tehillim.

משנכנס אדר מרבין בשמחה - When Adar Begins we increase our joy. We increase our joy throughout the month of Adar, some say to increase the joy throughout Nissan too.

Some have the custom to hang up a sign of שמחה אדר מרבין בשמחה.

🕊 7TH ADAR (ז, באדר)

7th Adar is the fast day for Tzadikim and most say Tachanun, however some have the custom not to.

There are those who are particular if possible not to make a wedding on the 7th Adar, due to it being the fast day for the Tzadikim as well as being the Yahrzeit of Moshe Rabeinu.

One should try to learn and do Mitzvot in memory of Moshe Rabeinu.

Most Chevra Kadishot have the custom to fast and go to graves of Tzadikim and to ask forgiveness from the dead in case they didn't handle the person with respect when burying, some also say Selichot.

In some communities, the Rabbi would give a Dvar Torah in memory of Moshe Rabeinu as well as in memory of other rabbis and Tzadikim who died during the year.

A child who is born on 7th Adar should not be named Moshe after Moshe Rabeinu.

🕊 PURIM PREPARATIONS

An inspiring Purim is the product of diligent preparation. In the days prior to Purim, one should review the Halachot of Purim.

🕊 PARSHAT ZACHOR (PARSHAT TERUMAH, 20/2/21)

It is a Torah obligation for all men and boys over the age of Bar Mitzvah to hear Parshat Zachor. [One who absolutely cannot attend a Minyan should read this passage from a Sefer Torah or Chumash, with the Trop (cantillation) if he knows it.]

Although women are ordinarily exempt from Kriat Hatorah, there is a dispute with regards to Parshat Zachor. Therefore, it is ideal for women to attend Shul. However, a woman who is unable to easily attend Shul (e.g. she is tending to her small children) may instead read this passage from the Chumash.

Ordinarily, a Sefer Torah may not be moved to another location for one time use. Nevertheless, one may be lenient if necessary to facilitate the Kriah of Parshat Zachor.

Ideally, the Ba'al Koreh should be old enough to have a beard. [If this is not possible, a Bar Mitzvah boy should serve as Ba'al Koreh only if puberty is established.]

The Ba'al Koreh should read loudly and clearly, and have in mind to be Motzeh everyone listening to the Kriah. Similarly, all the listeners should have in mind to be Yotzei the Kriah and to fulfil the Mitzvah of remembering to eliminate Amalek.

The word זכר is first read with a Tzeirei זְכָר - , and then repeated again with a Segol - זָכָר.

Some repeat just the word, some repeat the phrase זְכָר תִּמְחָה אֶת זְכָר עֲמֶלֶק whilst others repeat the whole Passuk.

🕊 TAANIT ESTHER (THURSDAY 25/2/2021)

Taanit Esther is not one of the four public fasts instituted by the Nevi'im. Therefore, a Chattan and Kallah during the week of Sheva Brachot need not fast. Pregnant mothers, nursing mothers and anyone considerably weakened by illness or advanced age need not fast. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard.] Mothers who have difficulty fasting while tending to their young children should consult with a Rav.

When a Brit occurs on Taanit Esther, the Baalei Habrit (i.e. the Mohel, the Sandak, and the father of the baby) need not fast. However, all other attendees must fast. Therefore, the Seudah takes place at night, after the fast.

Aside from the exceptions enumerated above, all healthy adults must observe Taanit Esther scrupulously. If one inadvertently ate during the fast, one must immediately resume fasting.

Anyone below Bar/Bat Mitzvah need not fast. From the age of nine upwards, the custom is to train children to fast for several hours, as per the child's abilities. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard.]

An individual exempt from fasting should eat in private only, and avoid meat, delicacies or excessive intake. Children old enough to understand the concept of a fast should avoid delicacies and meat.

🕊 EATING PRIOR TO THE FAST

One may eat and drink the entire evening until dawn (4:58am), provided that either of these conditions are met (this does not apply to water which can be drunk anytime up to the beginning of the fast):

- One didn't go to sleep for the night. [Dozing off is not regarded as such.]
- One stipulated (preferably verbally) before going to sleep that he would eat upon waking. In this case, one recites the morning Brachot before eating.

🕊 LAWS OF FASTING

One shouldn't brush one's teeth nor rinse one's mouth. [If this will cause great aggravation, there is room to be lenient, provided that one leans forward to prevent any liquid from flowing down one's throat; that one uses substances unfit for consumption (e.g. Listerine); and that one rinses with less than 86 ml.]

One may take non-chewable pills for medical purposes, without water. A Rav should be consulted regarding other medicines.

One may shower, bathe and apply ointments and creams. [Even one who is strict on other fast days may nevertheless be lenient on Taanit Esther.]

One may not taste food to determine whether it requires salt/spices. However, when preparing food for a Seudat Mitzvah scheduled for the night following the fast, one may taste the food, provided that all these conditions are met:

- One expels it without swallowing.
- One tastes only an absolute minimum.
- One does not taste more than 86 ml in total throughout the day.

🕊 TAANIT ESTHER: SHACHARIT

During Shacharit, only the Chazzan recites Anenu. Therefore, a non-fasting individual shouldn't serve as Chazzan.

[In the unlikely event that the Chazzan is not fasting, or less than three congregants are fasting: Instead of reciting Anenu between Goal Yisrael and R'faenu, the Chazzan includes Anenu in the Brachah of Sh'ma Kolenu, and concludes the Brachah regularly; i.e. Shomea Tefillah.]

A Chazzan who forgot to recite Anenu:

- if he remembered before reciting Hashem's name at the conclusion of the the Brachah of R'faenu, he recites Anenu immediately, and then repeats the Brachah of R'faenu;
- if he already concluded the Brachah of R'faenu, he recites Anenu in the Brachah of Sh'ma Kolenu, and concludes the Brachah with a double conclusion; i.e. Ha'one B'eit Tzarah V'shomeah Tefillah;
- if he already concluded the Brachah of Sh'ma Kolenu, he recites Anenu as a separate Brachah immediately after the Brachah of Sim Shalom.

One who is not fasting must still recite Selichot and Avinu Malkeinu.

One who davens without a Minyan omits the Yud-Gimel Midot-Harachamim.

Some hold that if Tachnun is not recited (e.g. when a Chattan is present), Selichot is still recited, whereas Avinu Malkeinu is not recited and some hold that Selichot ends after Viduy.

☞ TAANIT ESTHER: KRIAH

The passage of Vayechal is read, provided that at least three congregants are fasting.

A non-fasting individual must still hear Kriat Hatorah of Vayechal, but is not called up for an Aliyah. [If he is the only Kohen or Levi, he should absent himself.] If he is called up, and refusing the Aliyah will cause him discomfort or minimize the honor of the Torah, he may accept the Aliyah. In any case, he may perform Hagbah or Gelilah.

A non-fasting individual shouldn't serve as the Ba'al Koreh, unless there is no one else who can do so.

When the congregation recites the verses aloud, the Ba'al Koreh waits for silence before resuming. The one receiving the Aliyah begins these verses with the congregation, but ends with the Ba'al Koreh.

☞ CONDUCT ON TAANIT ESTHER

One should learn Torah connected to the topic of the fast.

One should give increased Tzedakah, especially before davening. It is proper to give the value of the forgone meals – especially if one is exempt from fasting.

The purpose of fasting is to arouse one to do Teshuvah. Idling away one's time, or partaking in joyous or entertaining activities, is not in the spirit of the fast.

One should be especially careful not to become angered.

☞ MACHATZIT HASHEKEL

Before Mincha, all males over Bar-Mitzvah give three halves of the local currency. [In Israel, three half-shekel pieces.] Some hold to do it after Mincha.

One should not use Maaser money for his own Machatzit Hashekel.

In some communities it is also a custom to give Machatzit Hashekel on behalf of their wives and daughters, as well as for their sons under the age of Bar Mitzvah.

Where possible, boys below Bar Mitzvah should personally give Machatzit Hashekel.

It is preferable that the proceeds go to a Shul or Beit Midrash, just as the Machatzit Hashekel of old would be used for the Beit Hamikdash. Otherwise, the proceeds are distributed to the poor.

☞ TAANIT ESTHER: MINCHA

Mincha is longer than usual (due to Kriat Hatorah and Haftorah); care should be taken to conclude before sunset (5:38pm).

Ideally, Kriat Hatorah should not begin prior to Mincha Gedolah (12:22pm). The Amidah may certainly not begin before then.

After Haftorah, most communities return the Torah to the Aron Hakodesh before Kaddish and in some communities, the Chazzan slowly recites Kaddish while the Torah is returned to the Aron Hakodesh.

If an individual forgot to recite Anenu in the Brachah of Sh'ma Kolenu, he may recite it in the passage Elokai N'tzor, before the second Yih'yu L'ratzon. If one didn't remember until he concluded the Amidah, he does not repeat it. [A non-fasting individual does not recite Anenu.]

The Chazzan recites Anenu between Goal Yisrael and R'faenu. [see TAANIT ESTHER: SHACHARIT] According to some, if after plag Hamincha, Birchat Kohanim with duchening is done. Chabad do not Duchan, however, the Chazzan does recite Birchat Kohanim towards the end of the Amidah.

Tachnun and Avinu Malkeinu are not recited, since it is Erev Purim.

☞ END OF FAST

The fast concludes according to R' Tukaccinsky at 6:01pm, others hold up until 6:11pm.

☞ PURIM DRESS (IN JERUSALEM PURIM STARTS ON THURSDAY NIGHT 25/2/2021 TOGETHER WITH THE REST OF ISRAEL, IN JERUSALEM, PURIM CONTINUES THRU SUNDAY NIGHT 28/02/2021)

One should wear Shabbat clothing throughout Purim. However there is a custom especially for children to wear masks or costumes. One should ensure that costumes do not contain Shatnez.

Cross-dressing is absolutely forbidden throughout the year. Although the Rema and several other early Achronim rule leniently with regards to Purim, the overwhelming majority forbid it. This prohibition applies to all adults and children who are of the age of Chinuch.

Some people encourage children to shy away from dressing as Haman or other wicked people. [When a Purim play requires a child to act the part of Haman, the Lubavitcher Rebbe indicated that this role be played without considerable enthusiasm.]

☞ MAARIV (THURSDAY NIGHT 25/2/2021)

Because we hear megillah this year on a day that is not Purim for us, one must hear megillah with a Minyan. A woman who cannot hear megillah reading in shul should strive to hear megillah in a place where there are ten women.

One should endeavor to hear the Megillah as soon as possible. [If circumstances require it to be read beforehand, a Rav should be consulted.] Nevertheless, the Megillah may be read the entire night until (4:57am).

One may not perform any activity that may distract him prior to reading the Megillah. Therefore, one may not eat, drink, nap or perform work from half-hour prior to Tzeit (6:10pm) until after hearing the Megillah. [Nevertheless, if one feels ill or weak, one may eat or drink between Maariv and the Megillah reading. Even so, one should not eat more than a K'beitzah (57 grams) of bread or Mezonot – unless there are health concerns, in which case he should appoint a Shomer (guardian) to remind him to hear the Megillah.]

In many communities an Avel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) may not serve as Chazzan on Purim, in some communities (including Chabad) an Avel does act as Chazzan on Purim.

The Chazzan recites Kaddish Titkabel immediately after the Amidah. The Megillah is read immediately afterwards.

After the Megillah is concluded, V'atah Kaddosh is recited, followed by the entire Kaddish but without Titkabel.

☞ MEGILLAH READING

All men and women over the age of Bar/Bat Mitzvah must hear the Megillah.

Children (both boys and girls) should also attend the Megillah reading and quietly follow along according to their ability, unless they are too young and will create a disturbance. [An infant who cries or makes noise should be taken out of Shul.]

Ideally, one should attend a Megillah reading in a Shul where a large crowd has congregated. However, one can hear Megillah anywhere.

At the very least, one should hear the Megillah with a Minyan especially as this year we do not read it on Purim. [This applies even if he will be reading the Megillah later for individuals who could not attend a Minyan.] If this is also not possible, one should still endeavor to hear the Megillah with as many people as possible.

One does not fulfil the Mitzvah of Megillah when hearing it with the aid of a microphone, or over the phone or radio.

A perfectly Kosher Megillah should be used. [If that is unavailable, a Megillah may still be used if disqualified words or altogether missing words do not occur at its beginning or end, nor do they comprise an entire section or the majority of the Megillah. Needless to say, the Ba'al Koreh must still recite every single word even when using a Megillah with missing words.]

One may assume that his friend consents to his Megillah being borrowed for the sake of performing the Mitzvah, as long as it remains in the vicinity at all times and it is returned to exactly the same place in the same condition.

It is preferable that the listener follows along in a proper Megillah and recites the words in a barely audible whisper – but only if he is sufficiently familiar with the proper pronunciation of the words.

One who follows along from a Chumash should not recite the words at all, but must rather pay especially close attention to the Ba'al Koreh.

The Megillah is unrolled before the first Brachot are recited. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

It is permissible to touch the parchment of the Megillah directly, unlike a Sefer Torah.

An Avel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) should not serve as the Ba'al

Koreh in Shul, unless this is his regular function, or there is nobody as fluent as him.

Everyone should stand for the Brachot, unless it is too difficult. During the actual Megillah reading in Shul, the Ba'al Koreh must stand (and may lean for support if necessary), but those listening don't need to stand. Nevertheless, most people do stand.

When the Ba'al Koreh recites the Brachot, he should have in mind to be Motzeh everyone who is listening to the Brachot and the entire Megillah. Similarly, everyone in attendance should have in mind to be Yotzeh the Brachot and the entire Megillah, and should not say "Baruch Hu u'Varuch Shmoh". [If one accidentally did so, he does not recite the Brachot again.]

If the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the Brachot are recited by another man who did not yet hear the Megillah, and he is Motzeh everyone. If none of the men present are able to recite the Brachot, the Ba'al Koreh may recite it for them (or prompt them word by word).

When the Megillah is read for less than a minyan of men or for women only, and the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the women recite the Brachot themselves (standing), however some hold that the last Brachah, Harav Et Riveinu is not said. They may either recite the Brachot individually, or have one woman be Motzeh all the others. The same applies when reading the Megillah for children under the age of Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

One should not speak from the time of the Brachot until after the Megillah reading (and the last Brachah) is concluded, because unnecessary speech is considered an interruption, and also prevents him from hearing every word of the Megillah.

Whenever Haman's name is mentioned (according to Chabad only alongside a title), one stamps his feet vigorously. Children should be encouraged in spinning their graggers and stamping out Haman's name. The Ba'al Koreh should wait for absolute silence before resuming.

The following Pesukim are read aloud by the congregation, followed by the Ba'al Koreh: 2:5, 8:15, 8:16, 10:3.

The Ba'al Koreh raises his voice at "Balailah Hahu" (6:1).

The Ba'al Koreh reads "Laharog Ul'abed; v'Laharog Ul'abed" (8:11) and "V'ish Lo Amad Bifenyhem; V'ish Lo Omad Lifyenyhem" (9:3).

The congregation reads the ten sons of Haman quickly in one breath, from the words "Chamesh Meot Ish" until "Aseret" (9:6-10), followed by the Ba'al Koreh. [Despite the speed, the Ba'al Koreh should ensure that he is looking at each word in the Megillah as he pronounces it.]

Some give the Megillah a light shake at the words "Ha'igeret Hazot" (9:26) and "Ha'igeret Hapurim Hazot" (9:29). [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

The final Brachah is recited by the Ba'al Koreh only when the Megillah was read with a Minyan. [Some would recite this Brachah even when they heard or read the Megillah without a Minyan.]

At the end of the Megillah reading, some hold it should remain unrolled until the conclusion of the Brachah recited afterwards and some hold it should be rolled before the concluding Brachah. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

❧ INTERRUPTION DURING MEGILLAH

One who misses hearing even a single word is not Yotzeh the Megillah reading. Therefore, one should pay absolute attention whilst the Ba'al Koreh is reading the Megillah.

If one missed hearing a word, the best solution is to read from that word onwards, until he catches up with the Ba'al Koreh. [This is necessary because each word of the Megillah must be read/heard in the correct order.] This should be done even when one is following along in a Chumash and not a proper Megillah.

One need not recite the words with the Trop if this will detain or prevent him from catching up to the Ba'al Koreh. However, one must ensure that all the words are properly enunciated and vowelized.

If one missed a word and did not follow the guidelines above, or he left during the Megillah reading for even a short time, he must hear the Megillah again. Nevertheless, he does not need to start again from the beginning, but may instead resume hearing it from the place where he was interrupted. In such an instance, one does not repeat the Brachot unless he diverted his attention from the Mitzvah of Megillah.

As mentioned above, one should not speak during the Megillah reading. If one said anything unrelated to the Megillah between the Brachot and the very start of Megillah, he needs to recite the Brachot again. If one spoke after this time – even matters unrelated to the Megillah – he does not repeat the Brachot again. Nevertheless, being that he could not have properly heard the words that the Ba'al Koreh was reading whilst he was talking or repeating the Brachot, he must follow the guidelines above for one who missed a word.

One should not pause unnecessarily whilst reading the Megillah. Nevertheless, if one paused even for an extended period of time, he may resume from the place where he paused. The exception is if he was forced to pause due to circumstances beyond his control, and the pause was for more time than it would have taken him to finish reading the Megillah. In such a case, one needs to start reading the Megillah again from the beginning.

❧ PURIM NIGHT

The table should be set with a tablecloth and candles. Even though there is no requirement to eat a festive meal, one should still rejoice and eat something special in honor of Purim. [One should moderate any festivities in order that they do not interfere with the morning.]

❧ SHACHARIT (FRIDAY 26/2/2021)

Ideally, Megillah should be read after sunrise (6:09am). Shacharit should be timed to read the Megillah as soon as possible. In extenuating circumstances, one may read the Megillah after dawn (4:57am).

Ideally, men should not eat before hearing the Megillah. If this is difficult, or there is any concern that one will be unable to concentrate during davening, one may snack, but should not eat a K'beitzah (57 grams) of Mezonot. Nevertheless, one should not be stringent if there are any health concerns.

Al Hanissim is not recited in the Amidah, and Tachnun is not recited.

If one did not hear Parshat Zachor on Shabbat, he should have in mind to fulfil his obligation through the Kriat Hatorah of Purim. [For this reason, the Ba'al Koreh should intend to be Motzeh anyone who did not hear Parshat Zachor on Shabbat.]

During Kriat Hatorah, the word זכר is first read with a Segol - זָכַר, then again with a Tzeirei - זָכַר.

Some repeat just the word, some repeat the phrase תְּמִתָּהּ אֶת זָכַר עִמְלִיק whilst others repeat the whole Passuk. (the reverse of Parshat Zachor).

Some hold the Sefer Torah is returned to the Aron Hakodesh and some (including Chabad) hold that the Sefer Torah remains out during the Megillah reading, and is returned only after Kaddish Titkabel, as usual. [The one who holds the Sefer Torah remains seated throughout the Megillah reading and associated Brachot.]

If one did not yet give Machatzit Hashekel, he should do so before the Megillah reading.

When the Brachah of Shehecheyanu is recited, all should have in mind the other Mitzvot of Purim; i.e. Mishloach Manot, Matanot Lo'evyonim and Seudat Purim, even though we will not perform Mishloach Manot and the Seudat Purim until Sunday. [Preferably, the Gabbai or Ba'al Koreh should announce this.]

One should wear his Tefillin until after the Megillah reading (and davening).

❧ MATANOT LO'EYONIM

All men and women over Bar/Bat Mitzvah should give Matanot Lo'evyonim to at least two needy people. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so.

One should use the local currency, and not use Maaser money. [This does not apply to any additional optional Matanot Lo'evyonim that one gives.]

Matanot Lo'evyonim must go specifically to needy people (or Tzedakah organizations devoted to that purpose), and not to other Tzedakah causes.

One need not assess the financial circumstances of a poor person before giving him Matanot Lo'evyonim. Rather, "we give to whomever extends a hand."

Matanot Lo'evyonim should be delivered during the Friday (and not the night before).

If there are no poor people present, one must physically set aside Matanot Lo'evyonim – a verbal pledge is insufficient – and distribute it at the earliest opportunity.

It is preferable to allocate more of one's funds to Matanot Lo'evyonim than to Mishloach Manot and Seudat Purim.

🌀 PURIM (SHABBAT 27/2/2021)

V'al Hanissim is recited in each Amidah of Shabbat.

If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place in the Amidah, he may still recite it if he did not yet say Hashem's name at the end of that Brachah. After that point, he does not recite it.

If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place in Birchat Hamazon, he may still recite it if he did not yet say Hashem's name at the end of that Brachah. After that point, he should recite it as a Harachamon, as per the Nusach printed in many Siddurim and Birkonim.

During Shacharit, we take out two Sifrei Torah.

We read Parshat Tetzaveh from the first Torah and from the second Torah, the reading for Purim as Maftir.

The Haftorah is the same as last week, for Parshat Zachor.

Some hold that the mitzvot of Seudat Purim and Mishloach Manot are observed on Shabbat. Although this opinion is not generally accepted, the custom is to serve an extra side course and some extra wine at the Shabbat meal in honor of Purim and to have guests at the table to fulfill Mishloach Manot. (Alternatively, one shares some of one's Shabbat meal with a neighbor).

🌀 PURIM (SUNDAY 28/2/2021)

This is when we fulfill the mitzvot of the seudah and Mishloach Manot, and the general simcha of Purim, costumes and all. Nevertheless, we do not say Al Hanissim in either davening or Birchat Hamazon. We also do not say Tachanun, nor do we read from the Torah. One should wear Shabbat clothes (unless one chooses to wear a costume).

🌀 MISHLOACH MANOT

All men and women over Bar/Bat Mitzvah should send at least one Mishloach Manot. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so. [The Lubavitcher Rebbs would distribute three Mishloach Manot packages – to a Kohen, Levi and Yisrael.]

The Mishloach Manot should contain at least two types of (respectable) ready-to-eat foods and/or beverages other than water. [The Lubavitcher Rebbs would include a food item as well as a beverage.]

Men should send their Mishloach Manot to men, and women should send their Mishloach Manot to women.

Some authorities hold that Mishloach Manot should be delivered through a Shliach. The Shliach may even be a child.

According to the Chazon Ish and some other poskim, one should distribute Mishloach Manot on Friday. (As mentioned above, most poskim contend that we give Mishloach Manot on Sunday.) According to the Chazon Ish, it is a hidur (stringency) to give one person Mishloach Manot on Friday to fulfill the minimal requirement of the mitzvah.

It is praiseworthy to give Mishloach Manot to many people. [Technically, one doesn't need to adhere to the above-mentioned Halachah with regards to any additional optional Mishloach Manot that one sends. Nevertheless, it is commendable to do so.]

When giving Mishloach Manot to one who is not yet observant, one should remind him to make the appropriate Brachot on each food item.

Mishloach Manot may not be sent to an Avel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing). However, the Mishloach Manot may be sent to an Avel's spouse or child. The Avel himself is required to send Mishloach Manot, but should send simple food items.

When sending Mishloach Manot in a new (non-disposable) utensil that requires Tevilat Keilim, it should be performed by the recipient and not by the sender. This is because Tevilat Keilim needs to be performed by the end user.

If the sender already Toveled the utensil, the recipient must still Tovel the utensil, but without a Brachah. The same applies if the recipient doesn't know whether the sender already Toveled the utensil. Therefore, the sender should inform the recipient (e.g. with a label) that the item has not yet been Toveled, in order that the recipient may Tovel it with a Brachah. [It is also best that the Mishloach Manot food not directly touch a non-Toveled utensil.]

🌀 SEUDAT PURIM

One must feast and rejoice on Purim. In fact, the joy of Purim is even greater than the joy of a regular Chag.

The feast is conducted in the late afternoon. Hence, Mincha is davened earlier than usual, prior to the Seudah.

Despite the hustle-and-bustle of Purim, one should make a point of learning Torah prior to the Seudah, for a short period of time. Since Purim is thirty days before Pesach, one should begin reviewing the laws of Pesach.

A fair part of the meal should take place during the daylight hours. At the very least, one should eat a Kezayis before sunset (5:49pm).

If circumstances do not allow one to conduct his Seudah in the late afternoon, he may eat this meal anytime during the daylight hours.

One should feast among family and friends, because a larger crowd increases the joy. One should also invite guests to the Seudah.

The table should be set with a tablecloth. Some have the custom of lighting candles.

The prevalent custom is to wash, and eat meat and other delicacies. It is also customary to eat Kreplach.

If one wishes to begin the Seudah in one place and continue it and bentch elsewhere, he must have this in mind when reciting the Brachah of

Hamotzie. [If he did not have this in mind, he should not relocate during the meal. However, if he already did so, he may bentch in the place where he concluded eating.]

One should share words of Torah at the meal, especially words of Torah that are connected with the Purim story.

It is customary to share a Purim Torah. The intention is not to use Torah to make a joke or mockery, G-d forbid. Rather one should share a Dvar Torah of the sort that brings joy to those who hear it.

🌀 WINE AND ALCOHOL

Chazal instituted that one should drink wine on Purim "until he doesn't know the difference between Arur Haman and Baruch Mordechai". Many Poskim understand this to mean that one must drink to the point of intoxication.

At the same time, the Poskim caution against becoming inebriated when there is even the slightest chance of negative consequences. This especially applies to anyone with a medical issue or a weak constitution; to young teenagers; to anyone whose behavior may not completely conform with Halachah when inebriated (such as forgetting to make a Brachah properly, bentch or daven Maariv); to anyone who may cause damage or injury to himself or others; or to anyone who may cause a Chillul Hashem when inebriated. Anyone in this category should discharge their obligation by drinking only slightly more wine or alcohol than usual.

It goes without saying that drinking and driving can be deadly and is a severe violation of Halachah. It is also dangerous for an intoxicated person to cross the road himself, and he should therefore be escorted home safely.

The Mitzvah of drinking wine or alcohol does not apply to women and children.

The Lubavitcher Rebbe established a year-round ban against people under the age of forty drinking more than four Kelitchlach (shot cups) of alcohol. Some years, the Rebbe made an exception for Purim. However, on many other occasions, the Rebbe stated explicitly that this ban extends even to Purim. The Rebbe would especially caution the Bochurim about this, and suggested that they fulfil their obligation by increased involvement in "Yeyna shel Torah" (the wine of Torah).

🌀 INTERCITY ISSUES

Due to reasons too detailed to discuss here, someone who intends to spend either Thursday or Friday night out-of-town should ask a Rav how these trips impact halachically. Also, someone from out of town who intends to be in Jerusalem for one of the megillah readings should also ask a Rav.
